A. C. NIRVANI GOWDA, Dy. Commr.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY, MYSORE GOVERNMENT INSURANCE DEPARTMENT, BANGALORE.

OFFICIAL AND PUBLIC BRANCHES.

Circular No. 200, dated 4th December 1947.

Subject matter:—Regarding the consideration of further proposals by proposers whose proposals have once been rejected permanently or temporarily.

The Agents and the Examining Medical Officers of the Department are hereby informed that, in future, when a proposal has been rejected either in the Public Branch or in the Official Branch, the proposer may after the lapse of three years from the date of such rejection, submit a fresh proposal to either of the branches, after undergoing medical examination in the usual course, provided his age does not exceed the maximum insurable age. If, however, he desires to send up a proposal within the period of three years, he may apply to the Department for permission to do so. He will be required to deposit a sum of Rs. 8 towards the medical fee and other charges, in addition to the usual Initial Deposit and to send the receipt along with the proposal to this office. Besides he will have to bear the cost of any special examination that may be considered necessary by this Department. He will then appear for medical examination before the Examining Medical Officer to whom he will be directed by the Department. He will further be required to agree to the condition that he will complete the proposal even if his life is treated as a sub-standard one and extra charged, the decision of the department in the matter being final. If the proposal results in a policy, the additional deposit of Rs. 8 and not any other special deposits paid for special examinations will be adjusted towards the premium account; otherwise the special deposit will be forfeited.

A similar procedure will be followed when a proposer, whose proposal has been postponed for a definite period, challenges the decision of the Department and desires to send up a proposal within the period for which his previous proposal has been postponed.

Under no circumstances should a proposer be medically examined for insurance within the periods specified above without the prior written permission of this office.
